CHALICE LIGHTING

*FOR JUST ONE SACRED MOMENT
– REV. SCOTT TAYLER*

When our days turn cold and the light dims,
may we take hold of the hands reaching out and let them lead us to the comforting flame.

When repression and indignity rise,
may we kindle the lamp of justice, together.

When exhaustion seeps into our bones,
may we let the soft light lead us to rest.

And when joy sneaks in and surprises us with grace,
may we stop for just one sacred moment and celebrate.

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST PRINCIPLES

We affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Rev. Sandra Fees

Whoever you are, wherever you go,
May you know the stillness of winter
and the call to love.

May the presence of the holy crowd out fear, hate, and worry and proclaim in this moment that peace and goodwill might yet be breathed into the world.
